Sub: Regarding aid for construction of various blocks at the new site of Ashadham at Hawala Khurd, Badi

Sir,

Greetings from Sister Damian, Secretary, Ashadham Ashram, Udaipur

Asha Dham Ashram, Sajjan Nagar, Udaipur (Dt.), Rajasthan, India, is a home for the destitute where poor, sick, old, disabled, mentally ill, who are completely helpless, and have nobody to support them, are kept and looked after with loving care and concern. The aim of the unit is to take care of those who are completely helpless without any discrimination of caste creed or religion. They are given physical, mental, social, medical and psychological support. It has been serving such people of the society for the last 14 years. It has a total population of 180 inmates and a few dedicated sisters who are serving them. The destitute home is helped by the generous and kind hearted people of the society to meet its day to day basic needs. The land in which it runs is donated by Rt. Rev. Joseph Pathalil, Bishop of Udaipur and President of Catholic diocesan Education Society. The building in which it runs has been donated by the generous and kind hearted donors of the city.

1. This unit is run totally by the donation from the people of good will and assistance from the State government. It is a registered unit under Rajasthan society act 1958. Registration number is 210 Udaipur 99-2000.
2. The constitution of unit is approved by the Registrar under society's act 1958.
3. The Income Tax Commissioner Udaipur vide his letter 496 s/21.6.0 has granted exemption under income tax act 1961 (80G).
4. The Ashadham Ashram Society is also exempted by the income tax department of India to receive unlimited donations by sub-section (iv) of clause (23C) of section 10 vide notification number No. 10/2008-09.

Need Identification

Sir, With the increasing number of inmates in the ashram and due to lack of space, there was an urgent need to accommodate the males and females separately. Acknowledging the activities and needs of the Ashram, the state government has allotted a 2.59 hectare of land at Hawala Khurd, Badi, Udaipur is allotted to us on the basis of our future projects.

A detailed estimate for the above project is attached herewith for your kind perusal.

Hence we request your good self to contribute generously towards the noble cause. We pray that the almighty may shower upon you his choicest blessings for your kind gesture. You may donate by cash, cheque or Online Bank transfer. The corporate are invited to avail this opportunity for donating under CSR also. Details of project and bank account number are available in our website www.ashadham.com.

Looking forward to a generous reply.

Thanking you in anticipation

With Prayers and best wishes
